

Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR), Automated External Defibrillator (AED) & Oxygen Administration

Suitable For:

Those requiring to use an AED and medical oxygen in the workplace

Aims & Objectives:

- To develop a range of skills in the use of an Automated External Defibrillator
- To develop a range of skills in the administration of oxygen

Course Content:

- Basic Life Support
- Basic respiratory and cardiac anatomy and physiology
- Outline of cardiac arrest
- Outline of 'shockable' and 'non-shockable' heart rhythms
- Preparation of the oxygen cylinder
- Patient chest preparation & attachment of electrodes
- Safety precautions

Course Duration:	1 Day	Max No. of Delegates:	12
Exam:	Practical Assessment	Location:	Stowan Training Centre or your Site

Certification:	Valid for 12 months
-----------------------	---------------------