

Fire Risk Assessment Course

Suitable For:

All employers to improve the understanding of fire risk assessment and how it can be used to reduce the loss of life and property to fire.

Aims And Objectives:

This course is intended to provide the participants with the skills and knowledge, consists of 3 -4 hours theory followed by a survey of the premises and then completing a fire risk assessment. The course will enable delegates to

- Undertake workplace Fire risk assessments
- Undertake workplace Fire safety inspections
- Understand the causes of fire
- Understand how to effectively manage the prevention of fire
- Understand how to put in place systems and procedures to deal with fire
- Undertake fire safety drills and audits

Course Content:

- Discuss Risk Assessment Process
- Highlight various Case Studies
- Procedures for dealing with visitors
- Evacuation procedures and including those with special needs
- The importance of fire prevention
- The importance of stopping processes and machinery
- Isolation of power supplies
- Importance of good house keeping
- Signage and planning
- Action planning

Course Duration:	1 Day	Max No. of Delegates	18
Exam:	N/A	Location:	Stowan Training Centre or your site

Certification:	Awarded on completion
-----------------------	-----------------------