

General Risk Assessment Training

This course concentrates on the legal requirements for risk assessments in the organisation and the assessments and practical application.

Suitable For

Those persons who are required to manage operational functions and or people / company appointed risk assessors / health and safety representatives (union and company appointed)

Aims And Objectives

This course will give delegates the ability to carry out suitable and sufficient risk assessments.

On completion delegates will be able to

- Define hazard and risk
- Understand the legal requirement for risk assessment
- Be able to carry out a general risk assessment

Course Content

- Health and safety legislation
- The management of health and safety at work regulations
- Workplace accidents (causation)
- The risk assessments process, understanding the key steps
- Undertaking a practical risk assessment

Course Duration	½ Day	Max No. Of Delegates	18
Exam	No	Location	Stowan Training Centre or your site

Certification	Awarded on completion
----------------------	-----------------------