

NEBOSH Construction Certificate

Suitable For

Managers, planning supervisors and employee representatives

Aims And Objectives

At the end of the course delegates will be able to attend the certificate examination, conduct a safety inspection of the workplace and produce a report on appropriate, cost effective remedial actions.

Course Content

Unit NGC1 - Management of Health and Safety

- Element 1 – Foundations in construction Health & Safety
- Element 2 – Policy
- Element 3 – Organising for Health & Safety in construction
- Element 4 & 5 – Promoting a positive health & safety culture / Risk Assessment
- Element 6 – Principles of control
- Element 7 – Monitoring, review and audit
- Element 8 – Incident investigation, recording and reporting

Unit NCC2 – Construction Activities

- Element 1 – Construction law and management
- Element 2 – Construction Activities hazards and control
- Element 3 – Movement of people and vehicles
- Element 4 – Manual and mechanical handling hazards and control
- Element 5 – Work Equipment hazards and control
- Element 6 – Electrical hazards and control
- Element 7 – Fire hazards and control
- Element 8 – Chemical and Biological health hazards and control
- Element 9 – Physical and psychological health hazards and control

Unit NCC3 - The Practical Assessment

- Practical Assessment / Theory examination Papers

Course Duration	112 hours	No. Of Delegates	Max 18
Exam	Practical / Theory examinations	Location	Stowan Training Centre or your site

Certification	A NEBOSH accredited certificate will be awarded
----------------------	---