

NEBOSH General Certificate

Suitable For

Managers, supervisors and employee representatives and is ideal for anyone who wishes to establish a career in health and safety.

Aims And Objectives

To improve knowledge and understanding of health and safety management, and equip to manage their organisational health and safety issues in a more proactive and practical way.

Course Content

Unit NGC1 - Management of Health and Safety

- Element 1 – Foundations in Health & Safety
- Element 2 – Policy
- Element 3 – Organising for Health & Safety
- Element 4 & 5 – Promoting a positive health & safety culture / Risk Assessment
- Element 6 – Principles of control
- Element 7 – Monitoring, review and audit
- Element 8 – Incident investigation, recording and reporting

Unit NGC2 - Controlling Workplace Hazards

- Element 1 – Movement of people and vehicles hazards and control
- Element 2 – Manual and mechanical handling hazards and control
- Element 3 – Work Equipment hazards and control
- Element 4 – Electrical hazards and control
- Element 5 – Fire hazards and control
- Element 6 – Chemicals and biological health hazards and control
- Element 7 – Physical and psychological health hazards and control
- Element 8 – Construction activities hazards and control

Unit NGC3 - The Practical Assessment

- Practical Assessment / Theory examination Papers

Course Duration	80 hours	Max No. Of Delegates	18
Exam	Practical / Theory examinations	Location	Stowan Training Centre or your site

Certification	A NEBOSH accredited certificate will be awarded
----------------------	---